MALAYSIA IN GENERAL

Malaysia is made up of two distinct land-masses separated by the South China Sea - Peninsular Malaysia and the states of Sabah and Sarawak on the Island of Borneo. The total land area is 329,758 square kilometers, and the capital city is Kuala Lumpur.

The country enjoys an eternal summer with temperatures ranging from 21°C to 32°C all year round. While rain can fall at any time, generally the wet season runs from November to February in Sabah, Sarawak and on the east coast of Peninsular Malaysia and from August to September on the west coast.

Bahasa Malaysia (Malay) is the official language but English is widely used throughout the country. The unit of currency used is the Malaysian Ringgit (RM).

Malaysia is a land of many contrasts - of verdant jungles and golden beaches; of modern skyscrapers in big cities and kampung houses in tiny villages; of diverse cultures, cuisines and lifestyles co-existing in an enchanting and harmonious quilt of many colors.

There are many budget hotels in Malaysia with rates of RM100.00 and below per night. The rates published in this brochure have been supplied by the hotels and serve only as a guide. You are kindly advised to check with the hotels as rates are not controlled and therefore may change from time to time.

Most of the budget hotels provide you with the basic needs - private or common bathroom, television, telephone, laundry facilities and restaurant.

Many of the budget hotels listed in this guide are found in town centers which may be located near public amenities like food centers and hawker stalls. Eating out in Malaysia is relatively inexpensive.

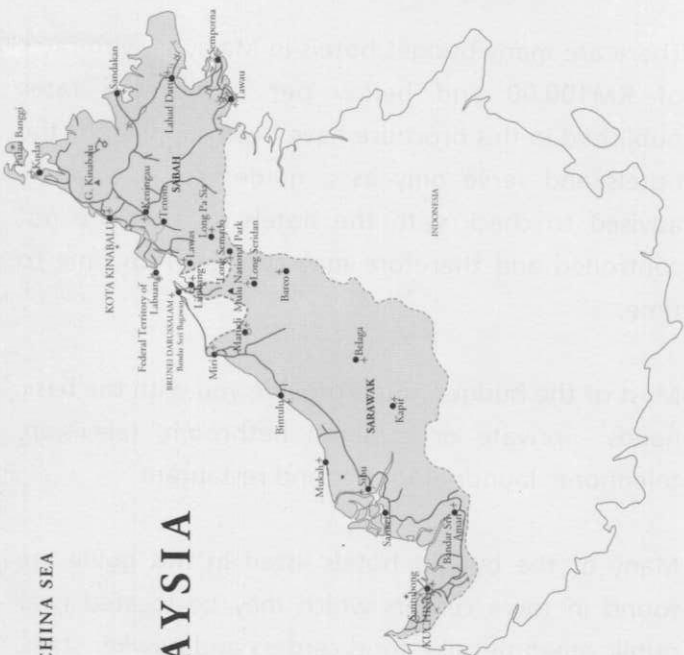

Traveling around Malaysia is easy and cheap as public buses ply the main towns regularly. Air-conditioned and non-airconditioned buses are available from Kuala Lumpur to other towns in Peninsular Malaysia. City taxis are metered while intersate buses have fixed fares.

In general, most budget hotels will levy 10% service charge and 5% government tax.

The Ministry of Culture, Arts and Tourism has classified hotels according to one to five star. Hotels in this list are rated two star and below. The rating is indicative of the range of facilities and quality of service presented by the star rated hotel. As the participation of the hotels is on a voluntary basis, the hotels that have not participated are shown as unrated in the list.
